Bold Meets Playful

A buoyant and playful update energizes a traditional dark and narrow kitchen in a Minneapolis townhome.

The owners began a whole house refresh of their new townhome with the remodel of two bathrooms, the basement and home office. A few years later, they were ready to tackle the kitchen. The kitchen was small and narrow, with dark cabinets and a bulky island. It lacked custom storage and newer amenities. Though they couldn't add square footage, the owners felt the kitchen could feel more spacious with a better layout. They also wanted to inject some color and whimsy to match the rest of their home's eclectic style.

Bold Meets Playful

Energized Layout

The owners liked their home's open floor plan, vaulted ceilings and welcoming great room. However, the kitchen sat behind an angled two-tiered island that took up too much space and extended awkwardly into the living room.

The new island is better suited for the space and still large enough to accommodate seating. The glossy green base and polished quartz create an ultra-modern, super-sleek look. The kitchen feels fresh and energized.

The new lime green island is the kitchen's cheerful centerpiece. Its bold, saturated color is balanced by cool white cabinets, white countertops and matte black fixtures.

Functional Organization

Custom storage includes pull-out tray storage, designated slots for the folding step-stool and rechargeable hand vac, and even a vertical wine rack within the island. The kitchen sink has customizable graduated ledges for maximum efficiency. Cabinet space is plentiful.

Lively Accents

White ceramic backsplash tile has a simple wavy pattern that doesn't do battle with the kitchen's bold colors (left).

A new wall of cabinets replaces a messy storage cabinet (right). It's ideal for hiding clutter and tucking away items not in use. Black floating shelves display colorful serving pieces.
