FEATURED HOME | MENDOTA HEIGHTS

Opulent Art Deco

A spacious and functional primary suite addition with an elegant Art Deco influence.

The homeowners dreamed of a primary suite that was both practical and beautiful. They envisioned a larger bedroom, his-and-hers closets, a spa-inspired bathroom and a spacious second-floor laundry room. The design would embody the elegance of Art Deco, with geometric shapes and polished finishes.

The extensive remodel transformed the home's layout. A bump-out provided extra square footage, while relocated walls and windows, and reworked closet access, maximized the reconfigured space.

BEFORE

A redesigned floor plan allowed for a luxurious free-standing soaking tub.

EXTERIOR

Function and Style

The addition over the garage provided space for a larger bedroom, a sitting area/reading nook and his-and-hers walk-in closets. The addition's custom-designed front-facing window matches the style of the window over the front door for enhanced curb appeal.

His and Hers

Inside, the walk-in closets have ample storage, custom organization features, glass-front cabinets and specialized lighting. Mirrored pocket doors can be closed to maintain a tidy look.

With the additional space, the owners were able to incorporate their "must-haves" in the bath – a seated vanity with an LED-lit mirror; docking/charging drawers; a curved tub surround for products, decor or a glass of wine; and a spacious shower with a built-in bench, full-length niche and tile ceiling. The walls have a European faux finish with a regal copper look. Countertops are elegant polished quartz.

INTERIOR

NEW PIECE

Inspired Design

Custom-crafted cabinetry doors and drawer fronts were inspired by the owner's vintage furniture (below). The new pieces were meticulously designed and crafted to match the original, including the intricate edge detailing.

The fully remodeled laundry room has an updated layout and an enlarged entry from the bathroom.

Features include undercabinet lighting, hang/dry space, built-in hampers and a convenient detergent pull-out. Ceramic backsplash tile in a herringbone pattern feels fresh and contemporary.
